Poverty in Scotland 2014
The independence referendum and beyond

In a year in which Scotland’s constitutional future is to be decided, this book provides an indispensable overview of the poverty and anti-poverty policies that form an increasingly important backdrop to the wider independence debate.

As well as reviewing the impact of policy developments since the 2011 edition, the anti-poverty cases for both independence and the union are set out by leading advocates of the Yes and Better Together campaigns. Contributions from academics, policy experts and campaigners also look to the future in setting out principles for a more equitable Scotland – whatever the outcome of the referendum.

Drawing on the latest data, the book explores:

- how poverty is defined and measured and what causes poverty in Scotland
- trends in the levels of poverty experienced and the impact of ‘austerity’
- the anti-poverty case for both independence and the union
- lessons on tackling poverty and inequality from across Europe and beyond
- key principles for tackling poverty including equality, inclusion, universalism, participation and redistribution.

Published in association with The Open University in Scotland, Glasgow Caledonian University and the Poverty Alliance, Poverty in Scotland 2014 is an essential guide for anyone wanting to understand the poverty that forms the backdrop to the debate on Scotland’s future.

Price: £12 311 pages Spring 2014 ISBN: 978 1 906076 94 8

Order Form: Return with payment to: Book Orders, CPAG, 94 White Lion Street, London N1 9PF.

Please send me ___ copies of Poverty in Scotland 2014 @ £12 £______
P&P: for order value £10-£100, add £3.99; £100.01-£400, add £6.99; £400+, add £10.99 £______
Total: £______

☐ I enclose a cheque/PO for £__________ payable to Child Poverty Action Group

☐ Please debit my Visa ☐ Visa Debit ☐ Mastercard ☐ Switch/Maestro ☐ by £__________ Card Number ____________

Expiry Date ______ / ______ Issue No./Start Date (Switch/Maestro only) __________
Cardholder Signature ________________________________

Security code (last 3 digits on signature strip) __________

Title ______ First name ___________________ Last name ___________________
Organisation ________________________________________________
Job title ___________________________________________________
Address ____________________________________________________

Postcode ___________________ Tel no ____________________
Email __________________________________________

Registered charity nos. 294841/SC039339. Company registered in England no. 1993854 We hold your details on our database to inform you of future CPAG publications/activities. Please tick here if you prefer not to be mailed ☐